

AVC Students Share Success 06-07

If a student keeps a positive attitude about trying new things he/she will succeed. Chris A.

The teacher challenged all of us and this class has been extremely helpful. Chris. M.

First it seemed like a lot of work...but in the end it will really help you. Once you get the routine down of putting the speech together and practice the only hard part will be fitting your talk in the time allotted for that assignment. Daniel H.

The resource section on the web page gave good understandable information that was very useful in putting each assignment together. Debbie. P.

Time and work = make a good speech. Don't procrastinate. One should start work early on each assignment. Also make sure your speech topics match your interest... Debbie P.

Your class was beyond my expectations and I thought I would not have worked as hard as I did. It was a worthwhile experience. It not only helped my speeches but my writing improved as well. Julia F.

Expect a new way outline and watch out to not include the word and in your outline. Bridget D.

I entered the class with a lot of fear from other bad experience. Taking and succeeding in this class where I have learned more than two other classes combined or another class I might have taken. Bridget D.

Attendance is really important and when I am not here, I feel as if I've been robbed as I miss so much. Debbie P.

Another student said after being recognized for best research, "It is funny to be recognized for research as I had to do so much in high school along with my senior project which was over the top. Yet, here I found the Ebsco Host offered so much more credible information. Nicole C.

Be organized and ready to work. Prof. Kahn expects students to do the work and offer their best effort. This in the end will help students to learn. Candace S.

Develop a list of topics early on and this allows you to maximize your learning to complete the time needed to practice your delivery.

The best part of the class was the comments and questions at the end of the speech. It really helped me know what to work on in my next speech. Also responses to the questions allowed me to share my research and show my credibility. Karla M.

Fall 07

I took Professor Kahn several years ago and was unable to complete the class. I was excited to find her at AVC and complete what I had started before. B.B & L. C