

Student Feedback Public Speaking Spring 09

SMC

Assignments:

“I thought it was adequate. I don’t think it’s too much to ask to have our outlines and speeches prepared for class.” Wendy G.

“The amounts of assignments was just right. They weren’t impossible but kept me busy all semester.” Courtney C.

“The most important things were the class critiques of each other’s speeches, the teacher comments after the speech and personal meeting to review the assignment all lead to incredible aid in the art of public speaking” Alyanna S.

What was most beneficial?

“ I found the analysis after the speech was very helpful. It gave me a detailed sense of constructive criticism.”

“The more I practiced, the better I became.” Eleyse R.

“Make sure in giving a speech your “thesis” runs throughout. It will help the audience maintain interest and not let lost.” Larissa K

“Most growth was tribute speech because it was the start of researching something and or someone I knew nothing. This paved the way for the rest of the outlines. Doing the research I was astounded how much the person accomplished before he died. It influenced me to continue to pursue my own goals.” Kaosha S.

Greatest Progress

“Since the 1st day of class to now completing the last speech I have improved significantly.” Brian B.

Advice

“Have your work done on time and being prepared will make the class easier” Elese R.

“Make sure you critique every speech to help the student have maximum progress in developing the skill of public speaking” Rebecca B.

“How the class was actually fun” Wendy W.

“You are unlike any teacher I have had; I have ultimately enjoyed your class and learned things I did not expect.” James S.

Suprise

“Relax have confidence in yourself and do not judge out loud because you don’t want them to judge you.” Jeremy T.

“I am actually better in public speaking. Expect a challenge with learning on your own. You can only be told so many times. It is up to the student to learn themselves.” Kayosha S.

“I think it would have been nearly impossible to give a speech and seem like I knew what I was talking about if I hadn’t run through it a dozen times beforehand.” Courtney C.

Rio Hondo

“The instructor is the most time efficient, well prepared instructor I have ever had. Upon signing up, I knew it would be difficult, but her teaching methods really helped me overcome my fear of speaking.”

“She’s well suited to be a good teacher. She always comes on time. She is well prepared. She helps us answer all the questions that we might have.”

“Being an eight week course, the work was appropriate. I learned a lot from taking this class.”
