

Introduction Speech

Bring in any two items from your native culture that will help us get to know you.

Your speech should look like this:

Introduction:

- I. Use the greeting from your culture. In Israel people say the word shalom.
- II. Identify a key term in your culture. Many Israeli's talk about doing a mitzvah which means a good deed.
- III. Tell us the two items you have brought. Today I have brought a hat from a kibbutz and some food to share.

Body

- I. First let me explain about the hat.
 - A. Israel has this housing called a kibbutz.
 - B. Families live there and they are self run businesses.
 - C. Many people go to visit them where they help out.
 - D. Helping is considered a mitzvah.
- II. Second is the food I brought.
 - A. In Israel people like to do good deeds.
 - B. This maybe helping the sick.
 - C. Visiting the elders.
 - D. It may also be feeding the hungry.
 - E. Today I brought some muffins I made to share with you.

Conclusion

- I. Today I explained to you about my culture Israel.
- II. We learned the significance of the word mitzvah.
- III. I shared with you the hat and the food.
- IV. Shalom